And for the more equal and right proportioning the several sums before mentioned, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several sums of Money to be Rated, Assessed, and Levied by vertue of this Act, shall be Rated and Assessed by a pound Rate, on the several parishes in the respective Counties, Cities, and Places aforesaid, for all and every their Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Annuities, Rents, Parks, Warrants, Goods, Chattels, Stock, Merchandizes, Office, or any other real or personal Estate whatsoever, according to the value thereof; That is to say, so much upon every Twenty shillings Rent or yearly value of Land and real Estate, and so much upon upon Money, Stock, and other personal Estate, by an equal rate, (wherein every twenty pounds in Money, Stock, or other personal Estate, shall bear the like charge as shall be laid upon every twenty shillings yearly Rent, or yearly value of Land) as will raise the Monthly Sum or Sums charged upon the respective Counties, Cities, and Towns aforesaid: For the better effecting whereof, it is hereby Enacted, That the several and respective Commissioners hereby appointed for the several and respective Counties, Cities, and Towns aforenamed, shall meet together at the most common and usual place of meeting in each of the said Counties, Cities, and Towns respectively, on or before the Fifteenth day of July, in this present year One thousand six hundred fifty seven.

And the said Commissioners, or so many of them as shall then and there attend and be present, shall cause this present Act to be put in Execution, according to their best discretion and judgement; and having agreed amongst themselves of some general Rules and Directions for the doing thereof, and appointed another time for the second General meeting, which shall be on or before the one and twentieth day of July aforesaid at the furthest, to Receive the Returns from the several Counties, Sectarries, Cities, Burroughs, Parishes & places; and then with all convenient speed they, or any Two or more of them, shall nominate and appoint two or three of the honest and able Inhabitants in the several and respective Parishes to be Surveyors and Assessors; who (or any two of them) are to ascertain and rate the yearly value and Profits of the said Parishes and Places for which they shall be appointed Surveyors and Assessors, and shall return the same to the said Commissioners, or to such person or persons as shall be appointed to receive the same, four dales at the least before the second General meeting of the said Commissioners; To the end that the said Commissioners may deliver in all the Surveys to be made throughout the said Counties, Cities, and Towns aforesaid, at the said second General meeting appointed as aforesaid, at or before the Nine and twentieth of July, One thousand six hundred fifty seven aforesaid. And for the better proceeding and more perfect discovery of the truth in the said Surveyes, that the intention of an equal Rate throughout the several places aforesaid, and every part of them may be obtained, the said Commissioners in their several and respective Divisions and Limits, or any two of them, may and are hereby authorized to Administer an Oath (if they shall see cause) unto the respective Surveyors and Assessors, for their faithfull discharge of the trust reposed in them, and for the just and impartial dealing in the same; And the said Commissioners, or the major part of so many of them as shall be present at the said second General meeting, shall upon view and perusal of the said several Surveys, cast up the true yearly revenue and profits of the whole County, City, or Town, to the end that an equall Pound-rate may be appointed upon every Parish, according to the proportion and summe of Money charged upon the said County, City or Town, by vertue of this present Act, which pro-

proportion and equal sense, the said Commissioners, or the Major part of them present, as aforesaid, are by vertue of this Act authorized and appointed to nominate and

And that being done, the Commissioners or any two or more of them, shall by their Letters, or by their Warrants to the High Constables and other Officers or persons within their several Divisions, cause the said several proportions and summes of money for the whole Shire Moneths, to be at once equally Assessed and Taxed in due manner and form, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, and appoint Assessors for the perfecting thereof, who are hereby authorized and required to put the same in with all care and diligence in present Execution, observing the Rules in this Act prescribed for the equall Assessing of all Estates both Real and Personal, within the Precincts of their respective Divisions. And for the compleating of the summe or proportion charged upon the same. And to the end the said Rates be equally and indifferently Assessed, and the Moneths duely collected, and true account thereof made, the said Assessors are hereby required, within six dayes after such Assessments made, to deliver one Copy of their respective Assessments fairely written and subscribed by them unto the said Commissioners in their respective Divisions. And the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby ordered and required to sign and seal two Duplicates of the said respective Assessments, whereof one Duplicate the said respective Commissioners are to deliver to the respective Collectors, duely to distrain for, and to collect the said respective

Moneths,

Moneys, to as the whole Money due for the same, may be paid, as in this Act is directed, to the respective Receivers General of his Majesties Revenue in Scotland, and another Duplicate to the Commissioners of his Majesties Exchequer in Scotland.

And the said several Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby authorized from time to time to nominate and appoint one or more sufficient, honest, and able persons in every Division or Allotment, to be collectors of the said Money so assessed and rated: Which said Collectors and every of them, are hereby authorized and required forthwith to collect the said Money so assessed: and the said Commissioners or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized to allow one penny in the pound to the said Collectors, and their Sub-collectors, for their paines in assessing and collecting the said Moneys, and one penny in the pound to the Commissioners Clerks for their pains in fair writing the Assessments and Duplicates: And if any persons shall refuse or neglect to pay any sum of Money whereat he shall be rated or assessed, that then it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said Collectors, or any of them (who are hereby authorized and required thereunto) to Levy the same assessed, by distress and sale of the Goods of such persons so refusing or neglecting to pay, deducting the sum assessed, and reasonable charges of distraining, and restore the over-plus to the owner thereof. And to break open any House, Trunck, Chest, Box, or any thing where any such Goods are, and to call to their assistance any of the Neighbours adjacent to, or within the Cities, Counties,

Towns,

Towns, or places where any resistance shall be made, or any other Officer or Officers, person or persons, Civil or Military, whatsoever; which said Forces, Officers, and Persons, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the Premises, as they will answer the contrary at their perils. And if any difference or question happen upon the taking of such distress between the parties distrained or distraining, the same shall be ended and determined by the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, and the said several Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby Authorized to use such other lawful wayes or means for the speedy levying of the said Assessments, as to them shall be thought fit: And if any person or persons shall neglect or refuse to pay the Assessments, and convey his or their Goods, or other personal Estate, whereby the sum of Money so Assessed cannot be Levyed according to this Act, then the said respective Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby Authorized to imprison the person, and Sequester the Estates of every such person, for the advancement of the said service: And the several and respective Tenants or Tenant of all Houses and Land, which shall be rated by vertue of this Act, are hereby required and Authorized to pay such sums of Money as shall be rated upon such House or Lands, and to deduct out of their Rents so much of the said Rates, as in respect of the said Rents of every such House and Land, the Landlords should or ought to pay and bear; and the said Landlords, both mediate and immediate, according to their respective interests, are hereby required to allow such deductions and payment upon the Receipt of the returne of their Rents.

And be it Enacted, That every Tenant, paying the said Assessment, shall be acquitted and discharged for so much Money as the said Assessments shall amount to, as if the same had been actually paid unto such person or persons unto whom his Rents should have been due and payable: And if any difference shall arise between Landlord and Tenant, or any other concerning the said Rates, the said several Commissioners, or any two or more of them, in their said severall Divisions, shall, and have hereby power to settle the same as they shall think fit: And in case the proportions set by this Act upon all and every the respective Counties, Cities, Towns and Places, shall not be so fully Assessed, Levied and payed, according to the true meaning thereof; or that if any of the said Assessments shall be rated or imposed upon any person not being of Ability to pay the same, or upon any empty or void House or Land, where the same cannot be Collected or Levied, or that through any other wilfulness, negligence, mistake, or accident, the said Assessment shall fall short, and not be payed, so that the whole sum by this Act charged upon every County, City or Place, happens not to be payed to the said Receivers General, by the times, and as in this Act is directed, That then, and in all and every such case, the severall and respective Commissioners, Assessors, and Collectors aforesaid, and every of them respectively, are hereby Authorized and required, to Assess, or cause to be Assessed, Collected, Levied, and payed, all and every such sum and sums of Money upon the respective Counties, Cities, Towns or Places, or upon the several and respective Divisions and Parishes where the same shall be Assessed, not Collected, Levied, or not payed, the said new Assessment to be made, Collected, Levied and payed in such manner, and by such means as in this Act for the Assessment is declared.

And it is further Enacted, That if any person or persons shall finde him or themselves aggrieved, that he or they is, or are over-rated, and shall within six days after demand made of the sum of Money Assessed on him or them, complain to the Commissioners who signed or allowed his or their Assessment, the major part of the said Commissioners who signed or allowed his or their Assessment, shall have, and have hereby Power upon examination, within eight days after the demand as aforesaid, to relieve such person or persons, and to charge the same upon such other person or persons as they shall see cause: And the said Collectors, and every of them are hereby required from time to time, to pay such sum or sums of Money as shall be by them Collected by vertue of this Act, to the Receiver General appointed by the said Commissioners for the receiving of the Moneys to be Levied by vertue of this Act, for the County, City, or Town wherein they are Collectors.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Power be, and is hereby given to the Commissioners at their first or second General meeting aforesaid in the several and respective Counties, Cities and Towns in this Act not nominated, to appoint in every particular

County

County a General Receiver, who shall receive the Assessments of the said Counties from the particular Collectors and Sub-collectors; And the said General Receiver of each particular County, shall forthwith transmit, or cause to be payed the Moneys by him received, unto the Receiver General of his Highness Revenue, or where, or to whom he shall appoint to receive the same; and the said Receivers General of his Highness Revenue is hereby Authorised to allow unto the said Receiver General in each County, a Salary for his pains, (not exceeding one penny in the pound) upon the clearing of his Accompt.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall wilfully neglect to perform his duty in the due and speedy execution of this present Act, the said respective Commissioners; or any three or more of them, have hereby power to impose on such person or persons so refusing or neglecting their duties, such Fine or Fines as to them shall be thought fit, and cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of his or their Goods in manner aforesaid.

Provided, That no Fine to be imposed by any of the said Commissioners, shall for any one offence exceed the sum of Twenty pounds; and that all Fines so imposed shall be payed to the respective Receivers General; and by them to the Receiver General of his Highness Revenue, for the use of the Rates raised by Authority of Parliament: And if any Collector or Sub collector shall neglect or refuse to pay, or detain in his or their hands, any sum or sums of Money by them received by

vertue of this Act, and to pay the same as is and by this Act is directed; the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them in their respective Divisions, are hereby Authorized to imprison the persons, and Sequester the Estates of every such Collector or Sub-collector for the satisfaction of the Moneys so received and detained by them as aforesaid; and to cause the same forthwith to be paid to the Receiver General of that County or place: And if any Receiver General, that shall by vertue of this Act be appointed for the Receipt of any Sum or Sums of Money thereby to be Assessed, shall neglect or refuse to pay any Sum or Sums of Money by him so received as aforesaid, and not pay the same as is and by this Act is directed, so that the County or Place for which he is Receiver, is thereby put to a further charge in providing and paying to the Receiver General of his Highness Revenue, the Sum or Sums by him so received and detained; the Commissioners of such County and Place are hereby Authorized to appoint a General meeting: and the major part of the Commissioners then and there present, are hereby Empowered to Imprison the person, and Sequester the Estate of such Receivers General, and to distrain and pay to such County or place, that by means aforesaid shall be further charged the Sums they have been so further charged withall by means of such Receivers General detaining in their hands, and not paying the Moneys by them received to the Receiver General of his Highness Revenue aforesaid. And it is hereby Enacted, That no case any Controversie arise concerning the said Assessments, or the dividing, apportioning, or payment thereof, which concerns any of the Commissioners by this Act appointed, that the Commissioners so concerned in the said Controversies have no voice, but shall withdraw at the debate of any such Controversie, until it be determined by the rest of the Commissioners.

And be it hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Priviledged place or person, Body Politique or corporate, within the Cities, Counties, Towns, and Places aforesaid, shall be exempted from the said Assessments and Taxes, but that they and every of them, and also all Fee-Farm Rents, and other Rents of the late Kings Revenues, all Rents and other Sums received by the late Court of Ward out of any Wards, Infants or Lunatique Estates, and all other manner of Rents, Payment, and sums of Money, and Annuities, issuing out of any Lands within any City or County, shall be lyable towards the payment of any sum by this Act to be Taxed and Levied, and all the Tenants of any Fee-Farm Rent, other Rent, sums of Money or Annuities aforesaid, are hereby directed and Authorized to pay the proportional according to the Rate and Assessments by this Act appointed and Enacted; and all such Tenants shall be hereby saved and kept harmless by Authority of this present Act, from any further payment of such portion of any such Rent, Rents, Sums or Annuities to the Exchequer, or to any person or persons to whom any such Rent, Rents, sums of Moneys, or Annuities as aforesaid shall or ought to be payed to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as full and as ample as if they had payed the same in the Exchequer, or to any person or persons to whom the same is received and becomes due. And it is hereby Enacted, That all those persons who have left the Commonwealth, and removed themselves beyond the Seas to inhabit, (except Merchants, whose affairs do necessarily call them abroad) shall be Assessed a double proportion upon their Lands, Stocks, and Chattels, of what others for the Lands, Stocks, and Chattels of the like value shall be Assessed: Provided nevertheless, and be it further Enacted, That in case the way and maner of Assessing by a pound Rate, in this present Act prescribed, shall prove any way prejudicial or obstructive to the bringing in the Assessments, appointed by this present Act, that then & in all such cases the said Commissioners in any of the said Cities, Counties, Towns, & places before mentioned, where such obstructives shal be or happen, shal appoint a General meeting together, and the major part of them then present may, and are hereby Authorized, for the removal of all obstructions, & the more & effectual execution of this Act, to proceed according to the justest and equal way of Rate, held in such places in the apportioning, Levying, and Assessing the respective sums charged upon them, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners in this Act named, or any three or more of them, for the more just and impartial Surveying of any Lands in the several and respective Counties, Divisions, Parishes, and Places, to appoint two or three such other able Surveyors, as to them shall seem meet, the persons not residing within the Limits and Divisions where such Lands lie that are to be Surveyed, and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any three of them to administer an Oath, if they shall see cause, unto the

ſaid Surveyors, for their faithful diſcharge of the truſt repoſed in them, and impartial dealing in the ſame: Provided alſo, That nothing contained in this Act ſhall be extended to charge any of the Maſters or Scholars of the Univerſities or Colledges in Scotland, or any other Officers in the ſaid Univerſities, Colledges, or Schools of any Hoſpital or Alms-houſes, for, and in regard of any ſtipend, wages, or profit whatſoever, ariſing, or growing due to them in reſpect of the ſeveral places and imployments in the ſaid Univerſities, Colledges, Schools, Hoſpitals, or Alms-houſes, for or in reſpect of any Rents or Revenues, being to be received or diſburſed for the immediate uſe and relief of the ſame.

Provided, That no Tenants, who hold or enjoy any Lands or Houſes by Leaſe, or any other Grant from any of the ſaid Hoſpitals, do claim, or enjoy any freedom, exemption, or advantage of this Act, but that all the Houſes and Lands as they ſo hold, ſhall be Rated and Aſſeſsed for ſo much as their yearly worth, over and above the Rents received, and payable to the ſaid Hoſpital. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Clauſe or Proviſo in this Act ſhall extend to the leſſening or abatement of the full ſum by this Act appointed to be Taxed, Levied, and paid, but that the ſame be fully Aſſeſſed, Taxed and Levied, Collected and payed in the ſeveral reſpective Counties, Cities and places aforeſaid, in ſuch manner and form, and to ſuch uſes as is herein before mentioned & declared: And that the ſeveral & reſpective Commiſſioners, & every of them, ſhall from time to time, give a perfect account of all their doings & proceedings to the Commiſſioners of His Highneſs Exchequer in Scotland.
